Sounds good Sean. I don't know this individual, but she sounds experienced. I'll keep it confidential until you announce. Thanks!

And thanks for explaining initiative issues to Bradner today. I appreciate all your good work - and those supportive words on the budget during the past week. Thank you.

Dear Governor Palin:

My dear friend Sharon Johnston, told me that you had this website for anyone who had ideas and concerns. There was talk that there is a surplus of funds and that you had asked the people of Alaska what they think it should be spent on.

I would like to put in my two cents if you please.

Invest a portion of the funds, for the future, and would you please consider spending some on the the Eagle River bridge....you know the one...it goes down a hill and it scares so many people and to many accidents occur from sudden braking, in the winter.

May I suggest that the road be risen up, like the Hiland bridge in Eagle River, and that it is 3 lanes wide past the second turn off to Eagle River (heading to the valley to turn off to Fred Meyers).

I appreciate being able to e-mail you. You are a blessing to this State, and you are lifted up in prayer.

God bless you and yours.

Subject: Rep. Lynn's bill, re: Darfur/Sinopec

Governor,

Just to let you know, Rep. Lynn was interviewed by KTUU today about a bill he is proposing that would "mandate Alaska divestment and prohibit future investment PFD and Pension funds in targeted companies that do business with the government of Sudan, where genocide is occurring..."

In Rep. Lynn's attached letter (not terribly important that you open it) he mentions that the Chinese company Sinopec is "one of the heaviest investors in the Sudan, thereby assisting the government that is assisting the genocide in Darfur!"

He wanted you to know that KTUU tried to get him to comment on Sinopec and its pipeline bid - in relation to his bill, but he apparently declined. He wanted to stress that his bill idea pre-dated Sinopec's bid to build an Alaskan pipeline.

It remains to be seen how KTUU portrays the comments, etc. It might amount to a non-story. Suffice to say, Rep. Lynn doesn't want you to think he's undercutting you in any way.

MESSAGE:

Alaskans must benefit equally from the resources that has created such wealth, for its citizenry. At this time, the wealth is disproportionately administered amongst Alaskan citizenry, by your administration.

It is about time for Alaskans to demand that land grant UA start paying for its own costs. Don't give UA anymore money unless the money given is matching the amount generated from their land grant status. If you are going to be so kind giving money to UA then please be so kind to reinstitute the fully funded student loan program (for strictly UA programs). This kindness will stop UA practice of double-dipping, from Alaskans; and give Alaska's most important resources, Alaskan children, the best education possible (within our own educational system); by using the money differently. (Solve two problems with the same money!) UAF has tremendous wasteful practices administering free money!

During the building of the Museum, a particular stone didn't look right to the administrator so all of the stone ordered was destroyed; and new stone was ordered, at twice the price. I believe the stone eventually cost three times over the projected costs. There are maney fraudulent budgets created by UAF - it only takes the State Auditors to find this wanton wastes of Alaskans wealth!

Lastly, it think you are making a terrible mistake to not assist the mentally challenged Alaskans, in Fairbanks. They are human-being (and Alaskans) who suffer from simple minds, and strong hearts. They don't require much when compared to other budgetary items, like roads, bridges, etc. The mentally challenged are not a burden upon Alaskans - they are an asset!

Sometimes I wonder why we, as human-being, hate our species so much. It really doesn't make a lot of sense, thinking about it logically to condemn ourselves into misery. We are not "bullies" upon the mentally challenged of our species; nor upon the sick - unless we are truly "bullies".

You are not a "bullie" Sarah!

Respectfully submitted,

William J. Journey

Sarah & Staff--

I was initially outraged by you wanting to turn down federal earmarks-- however before I curse up a storm, I suppose I should ask more about it.

Is there any way we can "exchange" some of that earmarked money for opening up more federal land to the state? How will we fund what matters to us? I think it's a great idea to decline much of the federal monies but I am afraid of us returning to the age before the feds took over, minus the state having land and resources to use!

I appreciate your response to this and understand if it's a form letter.

It is an honor to be offered the position of Deputy Commissioner and to work with you, I am happy to accept. Of course this is conditioned on receiving an agreeable written compensation offer. To Governor Palins' Office,

RE: Additional Followup

Monday afternoon Rick Sinnot finally returned our calls, and decided to put out a press release. We are thankful that the public is finally allowed this information. Regretfully, there was a wolf attack on a dog near Eklutna about a week previous to ours, and reports from joggers of wolves following them. Had this been initially reported in a timely manner our dogs fate may have been different, but I am grateful that my wifes fate was not that of our dogs. The press release we saw did not include the several wolf incidents that Mr. Sinnot shared with us, but only the Eklutna incident. THE REAL PROBLEM REMAINS . . . Why wasn't the public notified in a timely manner, and with complete information? Does ADFG act in the same manner if a bear is feeding on a carcas near a trail? Our public safety is jeopardized.

Thank you for the opportunity to express our concern.

To Governor Palin's Office,

RE: Followup to message below.

As of this Monday morning I would like to update you on the response, and lack of, that we have had regarding the incident described below. My wife informed me that she left messages with people at the Anchorage ADF&G office for Rick Sinnot at least twice, and for a Mr. Sledge, the Fort Richardson ADF&G representative, also at least twice. She was successful in getting a Mr. Lamm on Fort Richardson to at least look at the kill area. So finally someone has had the initiative to do that before everything is covered in snow or melted down, and we appreciate that. He thought there were multiple animals involved. We have also posted a sign at the Artillary Gate to warn people. We have not had any response yet from contacting Channel 2 News or the Anchorage Daily News. Today I will contact the local newspaper, the Eagle River Star.

To clarify our concerns:

1) Notify the area people so further incidents with dogs OR people can be avoided.
2) If this is not an isolated incident, why the public has not been informed.
3) Why doesn't ADF&G at least have the courtesy of a return phone call on a matter that concerns public safety?

It is unfortunate that if there is any public notification, it will have taken nearly a week. We hope there has not been additional incidents in this time. With no change in weather patterns and no preventative measures, these animals will get hungry again and repeat their actions. Will their next trip be to someones backyard or one of several churches, all within a mile?

We do appreciate your quick reply.

Thank you.

The Huberts

MESSAGE:

Dear Ms. Palin,

Tragedy struck our family this past Wednesday evening as what appears to be a large wolf took our pet dog from Artillary Road near Eagle River on Fort Richardson. The next morning we tracked the animal(s) and found a few remains about a mile from the core of Eagle River. This attack was about 30 feet from my wife.

We really wanted our loss to become others warning as to this danger that is so close. Several calls were made to the Anchorage and Fort Richardson ADFG offices in the early morning and again in the afternoon, but as of Thursday evening none of them have been returned. The overriding concern is the question of how important is the public safety to these people? One of the clerks responded that wolf attacks on dogs are fairly common! I don't recall any in the Municipality of Anchorage in the past 10 years, so are there facts regarding other attacks in the MOA that are not being given to the public? There are many children and other dogs in our community that are the same size as our 36 pound dog.

We ask you to have someone check with ADFG to see if this incident is "common" around the MOA, and why no one has responded to our messages. The public deserves to know the frequency and location of these types of incidents so they can avoid them. This should have been actively investigated to determine the type, number, and health of the attacking animal before precious evidence is lost.

Thank you for the opportunity to address my concerns. I hope and pray for the safety of our people, and their pets.

Respectfully, Kim Hubert
